WIFE - Ida Selina AHO

Family story in Remembering Winter Quarters page 15: " My Great Grandfather Abraham Oscar Koski came from western Finland, a little town called Perhon in the state of Vassa. He was a coal miner in the Scofield Clear Creek area. He married Ida Selina Aho, who's first husband died in the mine explosion May 1, 1900. Oddly, her first husband's name was Koski also. I understand Koski means rapids or running water in Finnish, and that it is a shortened version of Hirvikoski." There is more about her second family. Written by Steve Koski emailed 26 Oct., 1999

Her second husband died in a mining accident too. She also lost a teen age daughter. Both death certificates in file.

She received a check for $114.00 from the Scofield Fund July 15, 1900.

She sued the PVCC and received $500.00 less taxes film #484812 pg 272

Newspaper article about how young she was 16.
